

My First Holy Communion
By *****

I received the body and blood of Christ for the first time at St. Dominic Church with my second grade classmates on May 2, 2004. My teacher  helped me to get ready for this important day. I wore . Some people came to church to watch me receive my first communion, including . After church, there was a party at . Some people who came to my party were . People gave me many things including . The thing I liked best was . I will never forget my First Communion day because *****
